“ My condolences to the family. Losing a loved one can be very painful and sometimes leaves us with many unanswered questions. The Bible provides answers to such questions as these regarding our loved ones. Why do we get sick, grow old and die? (Romans 5:12) What hope is there for our dead loved ones? (Revelation 21:4) Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope of our loved ones at Acts 24:15 when those who are now sleeping in death will rise up (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) truly a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) help you find peace and comfort during this grievous time (Matthew 5:4).

“ To Loretta and family, My heart truly aches for you. I hope you truly know he is in a better place and no linger will suffer the wrath of this life and more sadly cancer. Its been a long journey and darrell has truly earned his place in heaven with the lord. Home is where the heart is and now he can protect you from where he belongs. What an amazing person that man was to me and our family I truly hope you all find peace with his physical absence, and I cant promise it will ever be ok or that the pain will subside but over time. Your heart will learn to see him in your memories and not in his passing. Love always Ray, Don, Bill, Kristen, David, Gianna, and grandma sandy (r.l.p)

“ Loretta, Tracy, Lorie, and the whole family, We are so very sorry for your loss. Darrell was a wonderful man. He was a breath of fresh air. Always happy and generous with hugs. Great big bear hugs! We were so happy to have known him. His love lives on through all of you. We know there is nothing we can say to ease your pain right now but we want you all to know that we are thinking about you and sending our love and hugs! We will miss you greatly Darrell! Love, David, Kristin, Oscar, and Chester (who is in heaven with Darrell now and who Darrell adored)
