“ To Aunt Jane, a most remarkable woman who married into my large Scandinavian family without blinking an eye....and fitting right in, cherishing Manitowish, fishing, picking berries and oh, so much more.

I remember how fascinated I was with your rosary when I was little (I had never seen one before) and how you let me hold it and touch the beads--so magical to me.

You also introduced me to what urban living was all about when we visited Chicago--traffic, public transportation, Polish music on the radio.

You were good sister to my mom, who lost her only sister in infancy.....a good listener too and I remember your stops at gift shops in Manitowish and Minocqua, window shopping really. Now that I look back, I realize how brave the two of you were to take assorted young cousins in there with you, always saying, "Now, don't touch anything."

You will forever remain a perfect blend of loving sensibility.

A donation to caringbridge.org has been made in your name from the Kilian family.

Loving you still and always, Barbara “ Jane was the epitome of the gracious host, loving mother & mother in law, doting grandma & great grandma, amazing baker and 'always there for you friend'. Heaven will be truly enriched by this new angel and her loss will mourned by many. It is a blessing to all the lives she touched that she was with us for so long. She will live on in many hearts. Peg, Jack, Ian & Katie Mazeika
