“ Upon hearing of Freddie's passing, I am both happy and sad. Saddened for your family for their loss. Every time we talked about your family Fred, there was a smile on your face. Happy because hearing your name brought a smile to me. It brought me all the way back to "Showtime at St. Rene to the annual golf outing in Indiana. Those were some great times that I will cherish forever. My condolences to your family, another great one has left us. Say hello to my parents and Uncle Lou!

“ My husband Ron and I enjoyed playing Pinochle with Fred and Mary every Monday for many years at the Worth Terrace Center. He always helped me and others cleaning up when we were done. We would take turns every week offering each other coffee as we were the coffee drinkers before the pot was emptied and cleaned. Most recently we celebrated our birthdays unknowingly at the same restaurant! His birthday was a day before mine. It was wonderful to see him out celebrating what was to be his last birthday. We will definitely miss you Fred. Ron and Maureen Balich
