PS

“ Kim & Kevin,

Our deepest sympathy to both of you and both sides of the families during this difficult time with the passing of Patrick. Patrick was a kind person with such caring ways. Even though knowing Patrick pretty much all our lives with attending grammar school and high school together, we went separate ways, but with living on the same block, we would run into each other from time to time. One of the funny memories I will always have of Patrick is when he would walk the dog down the block....or....should I say the dog was walking him?....Lol....too funny....that dog was going and going and Patrick trying to hold on to the lease. And, of course, giving that neighborly wave at each other when he would drive down the block.

Patrick, you were a sweet man....funny....you were 'you' and that is what we loved about your personality. You will be greatly missed. Another angel above watching over us.

*With Fond Memories,
Patsy Gomorczak Sodaro*
