My dear Libby....although I only met your dear Pete once or twice, he was PERFECT for you and together, you had your sweet Morgan and made a great life for yourselves and your girls. Life is so precious and you both always made it all work out and lived life to its fullest. My heart goes out to you and your entire family. RIP Pete. Thank you for your service To your community and for being the great guy you were to Libby and the gurls

“ Oh Libby - such tragic news. What a delightful and fun man. I'm so glad you were a part of his life. I never heard Pete say a bad thing about anyone and he had such a joy of skiing. I'm very sad he has passed.

“ Dear Libby and family of Pete. I think warmly on his laugh, infectious smile and sense of adventure and humor. So many fond memories of skiing and just hanging out with Pete. Haven't seen him a while but....will always feel blessed to have met him and see the love for his family and friends. What an amazing father and husband. Rest in Peace Pete. Hugs and prayers from Sue & Con Weimer

Sending our prayers, love and Hugs Libby. I am so sorry for the loss of your Pete. Never had the pleasure of meeting him. I know if he won your heart he was a super good guy. Be good to yourself now and take time to recover from such a significant loss. One day at a time. May the wonderful memories bring your family comfort and peace. Love never dies and connects us forever. My deepest condolences to your family. God Bless.
