“ My condolences to the Nye family on the loss of your father. I have fond memories of many good times spent at your home as I was growing up. I am sad to have heard about his death. Unfortunately, I am in North Carolina this weekend visiting friends, so I will be unable to participate in his visitation or funeral. However, my thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time. Comforting to know that your mom will be greeting him at the pearly gates in heaven.
