“ We were so fortunate to have met and spent time at Chicago Sporting events with Wayne and Sue. Meeting up for dinner was also always a lot of fun. Wayne was one of the nicest people you could meet. A prince among men. Susan, though your time together was cut way too short, the love you had for each other was very evident , and so special. May he live in our hearts forever, he will be sorely missed. Our sincerest condolences, and much love sent to you- Denise and Wally and family

“ My deepest condolences, Susan. Wayne was one of the first people I met when I started at AA. His wisdom of the industry and easygoing personality reassured me from the start. As classmates at training in Dallas, we shared our stresses and laughs along w a needed beer after passing our tests. He was a good man and always spoke so lovingly of you and your travels together. I'm so sorry for your loss. He and you will be in my continued prayers.
